To Whom It May Concern:

Please find enclosed Cloudflare's response to the disclosure request in Case No. [ 321-CV-05677-EMC]. Cloudflare runs a global network that provides security and performance services for Internet facing websites and applications around the world. Please be aware that the majority of websites that use Cloudflare's services use our reverse proxy, pass-through security service. Due to the pass-through nature of those services, our IP addresses appear in WHOIS and DNS records for those websites. Cloudflare cannot remove content from the Internet that it does not host, and we generally do not collect or keep information regarding the end users of websites using our services. You can find more information about the type of information we collect here.

Subscriber information including name, address, email address, and any other user-provided information are included in the document named:

all_zone_info.csv
user_info.csv

Should billing information exist, it is included in the document named:

billing_profile_details.docx
payments_details.docx

Cloudflare's previous third party credit card processor was Recurly. This changed on May 24, 2016. For more details regarding the transactions, please contact Recurly. Recurly's Agent for Service of Process is Isaac Hall, 300 Brannan Street, Suite 608, San Francisco, CA 94107. Cloudflare's previous third party credit card processor is Braintree. This changed on May 24, 2016. Below are transaction details from the Cloudflare's billing interface that connects to Braintree. For more details regarding the transactions (including the full credit card number), please contact Braintree(PayPal) - <https://www.paypal.com/us/webapps/mpp/law-enforcement>. Cloudflare's current third party credit card processor is Stripe. This changed December 2020. If a paid account has any transaction details, they will be attached in a separate folder. Please note that free accounts will not have any billing records. For more details regarding any transactions (including the full credit card number), please contact Stripe at notices@stripe.com.

Session times, connection time, connection date, and the IP address associated with the user at the time of the connection is included in the document named:

user_IP_log_info.csv

This information relates to the user accessing their Cloudflare dashboard. If you are looking for information pertaining to the website itself such as visitor traffic and user activity logs for a particular website, you should contact the underlying host for that information. In reviewing this file, please use the following key:

- Column A / User ID:
  - Internal Cloudflare user reference number.
- Column B / Zone ID:
  - Internal Cloudflare domain/URL reference number; managed by the user or account in Column A.
- Column C / IP:
  - IP address of the end user (Column A).
- Column D / Timestamp:
  - The time that the login took place. All times are in UTC.

The information in the above documents represent all readily accessible data in Cloudflare's possession that is responsive to your request. In some cases, additional and similar usage data related to newer Cloudflare products, notably rate limiting and load balancing, may not be accessible from the search we have conducted. If you have a need for that specific information or have any other questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Ryan Carter, Trust & Safety Legal Support Manager or Richard Leaning, Director of Outreach at abuse+law@cloudflare.com.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

I. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Cloudflare, Inc. (“Cloudflare”), including its subsidiaries, related entities, and/or divisions, and any of its successors and/or assigns, is to make available for copying all requested documents that are in its possession, custody, or control, including documents in the possession, custody, or control of its attorneys, accountants, agents, representatives, or any other persons acting on its behalf.

2. Cloudflare is to produce any Microsoft Excel and/or other database-related files in their native electronic format.

3. Should a claim be made that any subpoenaed document is not subject to discovery by reason of privilege or some other legal protection, please provide a privilege log containing the information required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5).

II. DEFINITIONS

As used herein, the following terms are intended to have the meanings indicated:

1. The phrase “All Documents” means every Document, whether an original or copy as defined below, and every such Document or writing that can be located through reasonably diligent efforts.

2. “And” means “and/or” and “or” means “and/or.” The plural of any word used herein includes the singular, and the singular includes the plural. The masculine gender of any word used herein includes the feminine. The past tense of a verb used herein includes the present tense, and the present tense includes the past tense.

3. The terms “Document” and “Documents” include without limitation the original and all drafts of all written or graphic matter, however produced or reproduced, of any kind or description, and all copies thereof which are different from the original (whether different by interlineation, receipt stamp, notation, indication of copies sent or received, or otherwise), whether printed or recorded electronically or magnetically or reproduced by hand, including documents and electronically stored information as defined by Rule 34(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and writings and recordings as defined by Rule 1001(1) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. Examples of “Documents” are: agreements or contracts, communications, correspondence, e-mails, telegrams, cables, memoranda, records, books, summaries of records or personal conversations or interviews, diaries, desk calendars, appointment books, journals, message pads, forecasts, statistical statements, accountants’ workpapers, graphs, charts, diagrams, certificates and certifications, tables, indexes, pictures, recordings, sound recordings, images, data or data compilations stored in any medium, tapes, microfilm, charges, accounts, analytical records, minutes or records of meetings, conferences or conversations, reports or summaries of interviews, reports or summaries of investigations, texts or surveys, opinions or reports of consultants, appraisals, reports or summaries of negotiations, advertisements, brochures, pamphlets, circulars, trade letters, press releases, stenographic or handwritten or other notes, projections, working papers, checks front and back, check stubs or receipts, envelopes, invoice vouchers, data processing cards, tapes, backup tapes, disks or any other written, recorded, transcribed, punched, taped, filmed or graphic matter, however produced or reproduced, and any other document or writing of whatever description, including but not limited to any other information contained in any computer, computer peripheral equipment, computer library, or website, although not yet printed.

4. The term “IP Address” means Internet Protocol address and Internet Protocol number.

5. The term “Identify” means:

(a) for individuals, to provide the name, Social Security number, date of birth, home addresses, office addresses, mailing addresses, billing addresses, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, Media Access Control number, related Internet websites, IP Addresses used by the subscriber with the date, time zone, hour, minute, and second when each IP Address was used, and any and all other identifying information, including, for example, information contained on any activity logs;

(b) for entities, to provide the name, office addresses, mailing addresses, billing addresses, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, Media Access Control number, related Internet websites, IP Addresses used by the subscriber with the date, time zone, hour, minute, and second when each IP Address was used, and any and all other identifying information, including, for example, information contained on any activity logs; and

(c) in all other instances, the term shall be construed in accordance with its ordinary meaning, with the object of providing information sufficient to permit complete and accurate identification of the requested subject matter.
